

Fancy a tour of County Archives at Preston?

On Wednesday 1 June 2016

As part of our sharing heritage project

'Interpreting Acre—Miss Margaret Pilling's Victorian model village'

The Heritage Lottery are funding a free trip* for up to 15 people to discover how local archives can help you find out about your local or family history.

* the free elements are return transport from Acre to Preston and a tour of county archives

The trip will include:

9:30am Mini bus pick up in Acre

10:30 am 1½ guided tour of county archives - we will be shown the type of records held at county archives and how to use them to conduct local history research or family history research.

12:00 free time; people can choose what they want to do eg stay at archives and conduct some research; go for lunch or shopping; visit The Harris Museum and Art Gallery www.harrismuseum.org.uk

2:30 pm coach leaves Preston for Acre

Anyone who is interested in getting involved is welcome to book a place and please let you colleagues, friend's and neighbours know in case they are interested.
